Spike says:
 Come and see Scottie
 the shredding wonder dog.

This year we're proud to premiere not only currently Oscar nominated shorts, but a truly international array of shorts, featuring the charm of "Mons the Cat", the painstaking artistic achievement of "Stressed", and the humor of choreographed dancing chickens in "The Devil Went Down to Georgia."

1996 Oscar Winner!

* LIVE and in person. One night only. The Ayatollah of Computer Animation ... John Lasseter

"The fest has for 20 years, done mankind a service that no one else can do by showing the world the wonderful art form of the animated film short."

— John Lasseter

Don't miss this rare opportunity to meet this two-time Oscar winner, director of the first fully computer animated feature film, "Toy Story". Bring your Toy Story toys for the master to sign.

All you eggheads, this is your chance to touch his garment and to ask him those technical questions. As a salute, we'll be screening "Tin Toy" on THIS NIGHT ONLY! We strongly recommend reserving your tickets for this show in advance. Pricing for the Lasseter show is $10.00, March 29 at the Palace. Theater Showtime: 6:30 and 9:30. Please note this show runs longer as John will be speaking and there will be an AUTOGRAPH PARTY!
